

CHESAPEAKE
MULTICULTURAL
RESOURCE CENTER

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:
October 6, 2021

Contact: Christina Acosta
Talbot County Free Library Communications Manager
(410) 822-1626 ext. 3008
cacosta@tcfl.org

MEDIA ADVISORY

Multicultural Resource Center, TCFL highlights 'Nuestras Raíces' (Our Roots)

EASTON, MD -- In honor of Hispanic Heritage Month, the Chesapeake Multicultural Resource Center and the Talbot County Free Library will be hosting the Nuestras Raíces (Our Roots) book discussion and reception.

WHAT: The event will focus on two families from Latin America who each wrote a book that recounts their life abroad, their journey to America, and their life here in Easton, Maryland. Each book also has illustrations created by their children. Signed copies of each book will be available at the reception. This is an invite-only event and we highly recommend that you RSVP by October 14, 2021 to cacosta@tcfl.org.

WHO: Two Authors sharing their story, Mayor Robert Willey, Talbot County Council

WHEN: Wednesday, October 20 at 6 p.m.

WHERE: Talbot County Free Library, 100 W Dover Street Easton, MD 21601

###