Talbot County Free Library's St. Michaels Branch announces Food Drive in December

ST. MICHAELS (NOVEMBER 30) – Talbot County Free Library's St. Michaels Branch will be holding a food drive during this winter for those in need.

The Food Drive will be taking place during normal business hours on December 1 through December 21 at the St. Michaels Branch, located at 106 Fremont Street. Items that will be accepted include canned goods and non-perishable items.

The items will be given to the St. Michaels Community Center located at 103 Railroad Avenue. For St. Michaels Branch Manager Shauna Beulah, making partnerships with other local community organizations is vital during the winter.

“It is gratifying to help the community and be of service when and where we can. It is part of our mission to serve and help people enrich their lives,” said Beulah. “We have come to know our patrons and we enjoy sharing with them all that the library has to offer.”

In 2021, approximately two million Marylanders may face hunger according to Maryland Food Bank's Maryland Hunger Map Analysis. Roughly 39 % of Maryland Households are likely to be food insecure.

In Talbot County, one in five children are food insecure and 43 % of Talbot County public school kids receive free or reduced price school meal, according to Talbot County Hunger Coalition. The St. Michaels Community Center has a vision to enhance the quality of life and serve the needs of the community through programs, partnerships, and educational activities. The St. Michaels Community Center has been helping families in need for over 30 years.
