May's Lunch & Learn will be featuring a Chef's perspective on living local

(ST. MICHAELS MD, MARCH 28, 2023) — Chef Jordan Lloyd will be the guest speaker for the May Lunch & Learn series at the St. Michaels branch on Monday, May 1st at noon.

Lloyd will be speaking about his history and passion for his native region, Talbot County. Coming from a family of watermen and the farms, the foundational passion for his surroundings began in his youth and pushed him to become a community food leader.

After training with the best chefs and hospitality professionals in the country, Lloyd decided to come home and make a difference in the community. The chef is currently the owner of Hambleton House Events & Catering with Alice his wife of 21 years.

In addition, he is the President of the St. Michaels's Farmers Market and the culinary consultant for the St. Michaels Community Center. Lloyd is committed to curing food insecurity in our region and believes leading is best handled by supporting others in their success.

The Lunch & Learn Speakers series is sponsored by the Friends of the Library. Coffee and dessert will be provided. For more information, visit www.tcfl.org or call 410-745-5877.

About Talbot County Free Library

*It is the mission of the Talbot County Free Library to enrich and renew the lives of the people it serves. There are two locations: The main library in Easton is located at 100 W. Dover St.; and the St. Michael branch is at 106 Fremont St. The Maryland Room in the Easton branch holds a voluminous collection of genealogical resources and historical documents. Services at both locations include the circulation of books, DVDs, and digital devices, as well as free Wi-Fi, public computers, exhibits, and programs for both children and adults. Many of the Talbot County Free Library's programs are made possible by the generous support of the local community. For more information, please visit www.tcfl.org.
