The National Society Daughters of the American Revolution honors St. Michaels branch with the Literacy Champion Award

(ST. MICHAELS MD, JANUARY 20, 2023) — The National Society Daughters of the American Revolution (DAR) presented the Talbot County Free Library's (TCFL) St. Michaels branch with the Literacy Champion Award on Wednesday, January 18. The General Perry Benson Chapter of Easton recognized the library for their outstanding work in literacy promotion. The library was also provided with a copy of "The Story of Mr. Thomas Carney: A Maryland Patriot of the American Revolutionary War," by Steven Xavier Lee. The award was given in memory of Betty Seymour, a long time TCFL Maryland Room volunteer, genealogist, and author. The book will be cataloged in the St. Michaels branch in the coming months.

About Talbot County Free Library

It is the mission of the Talbot County Free Library to enrich and renew the lives of the people it serves. There are two locations: The main library in Easton is located at 100 W. Dover St.; and the St. Michael branch is at 106 Fremont St. The Maryland Room in the Easton branch holds a voluminous collection of genealogical resources and historical documents. Services at both locations include the circulation of books, DVDs, and digital devices, as well as free Wi-Fi, public computers, exhibits, and programs for both children and adults. Many of the Talbot County Free Library's programs are made possible by the generous support of the local community. For more information, please visit www.tcfl.org. Be sure to like the library on Facebook and follow us on Instagram @Talbotcountyfreelibrary.
